Final Forms and Instructions for 2020 ACA Reporting Released

The Affordable Care Act (ACA) created reporting requirements under Code Sections 6055 and 6056. Under these rules, certain employers must provide information to the IRS about the health plan coverage they offer (or do not offer) or provide to their employees. Each reporting entity must annually file the following with the IRS:

- A separate statement (Form 1095-B or Form 1095-C) for each individual who is provided with minimum essential coverage (for providers reporting under Section 6055), or for each full-time employee (for ALEs reporting under Section 6056); and
- A transmittal form (Form 1094-B or Form 1094-C) for all of the returns filed for a given calendar year.

Reporting entities must also furnish related statements (Form 1095-B or 1095-C) to individuals, subject to the relief for furnishing individual statements under Section 6055 described below.

Forms must generally be filed with the IRS no later than Feb. 28 (March 31, if filed electronically) of the year following the calendar year to which the return relates. Individual statements must generally be furnished to individuals on or before Jan. 31 of the year immediately following the calendar year to which the statements relate.

2020 Forms and Instructions

The 2020 instructions include a number of changes and clarifications related to 2020 reporting.

- Extension of due date for furnishing statements. The due date for furnishing Forms 1095-B and 1095-C to individuals has been extended from Jan. 31, 2021, to March 2, 2021.
- Relief for failure to furnish statements. The IRS has extended relief from penalties for failure to furnish individual statements under Section 6055 for 2020 calendar year reporting. Specifically, the IRS will not impose a penalty for reporting entities that furnish Form 1095-B to individuals only upon request, if certain conditions are met.
- Extension of good faith relief for reporting and furnishing. The IRS has extended good faith relief from penalties related to 2020 calendar year reporting. Specifically, the IRS will not impose a penalty for reporting incorrect or incomplete information on the Forms 1095-B or 1095-C, as applicable, if the reporting entity makes a good faith effort to comply with the information reporting requirements.
- Individual coverage health reimbursement arrangement (ICHRA). For plan years beginning on or after Jan. 1, 2020, employers may offer HRAs integrated with individual health insurance coverage or Medicare, subject to certain conditions (ICHRAs).
 - Section 6055: Generally, an HRA, including an ICHRA, is a self-insured group health plan and, therefore, is an eligible employer-sponsored plan. A new code G must be entered on Form 1095-B, line 8 "Origin of Health Coverage," to identify an ICHRA.
 - Section 6056: On Sept. 30, 2019, the IRS issued proposed regulations clarifying the application of the employer shared responsibility (pay or play) rules to ICHRAs and providing proposed safe harbors for the application of those provisions to ICHRAs. Form 1095-C has been modified to add new codes in Code Series 1 for reporting offers of ICHRAs and new lines for reporting required information.

Certain additions were also made to the 2020 Forms 1095-B and 1095-C related to ICHRAs. Specifically, Form 1095-B includes an additional letter for line 8 to identify the origin of the health coverage. Letter G indicates coverage under an ICHRA.

In addition, the Form 1095-C includes the following additional codes in Code Series 1:

- 1L. ICHRA offered to employee only with affordability determined by using employee’s primary residence location zip code.
- 1M. ICHRA offered to employee and dependent(s) (not spouse) with affordability determined by using employee’s primary residence location zip code.
- 1N. ICHRA offered to employee, spouse and dependent(s) with affordability determined by using employee’s primary residence location zip code.
